Your Itinerary in Detail

Day 1: Welcome to Dublin, Céad Míle Fáilte.

Your driver-guide is ready to greet you, as soon as your plane lands at Dublin airport. Your luxury vehicle awaits you and your adventure is just about to begin. We're right there with you, from start to finish. You can sit back, relax and enjoy a well-organised trip. From here, your central Dublin hotel is just 10km away. If you wish, your driver-guide will give you a short tour of the centre, whilst travelling to your hotel. Dependent on traffic and times, you might see O'Connell Street and the General Post Office. This is where the Proclamation was read on Easter Sunday 1916, for the very first time.

You might also catch sight of the Garden of Remembrance and The Custom House. Tomorrow, after a good night's sleep, you'll have much more time to explore. You'll be staying on one of our preferred 5-star hotels for two nights: The Shelbourne Hotel: The Merrion Hotel: The Westbury Hotel or The Dylan Hotel. On arrival, your driver-guide will help you settle in, then leave you to relax and recharge. Of course, if you'd like some ideas for dinner, just ask. We've got ample local knowledge to ensure you make great choices every day.

2 nights at The Shelbourne Hotel in a Double Deluxe Room inclusive of breakfast

Day 2: A Private 3 Hour Walking Tour of Dublin City

Your friendly local guide will be waiting for you in the hotel lobby after your first Irish breakfast. An informative three-hour walking tour starts from your hotel door, exclusively for your party. Taking in many key sights and buildings within Dublin city, you'll welcome this informative insight into the capital city's history and local life. Should you have any specific points of interest, or mobility needs, we'll happily accommodate them for you.

Custom House opened in 1791 at Dublin Port. Rich in neoclassical architecture, you'll learn about it on this tour. Dublin Castle is another feature. Dating to the 13th century, it's been a major government centre since independence in 1922. And the Georgian doors of Dublin are a popular "must-see". You'll love seeing their colour and decoration first-hand; an important part of Dublin's history.

In the heart of Dublin, tucked away down cobbled lanes, you'll complete your tour at Trinity College Library. Here you'll find the world-famous Book of Kells. Dating to 384AD, this ornately decorated vellum book contains the four Gospels in Latin. Historically, it's extremely significant and carefully preserved here in Ireland.

You're free to discover more Dublin highlights during the afternoon and evening. There's much to see and we'll help you plan your time. Perhaps the National Gallery is of interest? Or the Irish Immigration Museum? And there's plenty of fantastic shopping on offer too.

You can arrange to keep your driver-guide (and vehicle) for the afternoon or try your hand on the public transport. Either way, we're here to help you make the most of your time in Dublin.

The Book of Kells Welcome to the Old Library and the Book of Kells - a "must see" on the itinerary of all visitors to Dublin. Located in the heart of Dublin City, a walk through the cobbled stones of Trinity College Dublin will bring visitors back to the 18th century, when the magnificent Old Library building was constructed. Inside is housed the Book of Kells - a 9th-century gospel manuscript famous throughout the world.

Day 3: Dublin to Cork: Historic Land of Saints & Scholars

With so much more to discover in South-West Ireland, you'll depart from Dublin today. Your destination is Cork. 265km across gorgeous scenery and past many places of interest. Accompanied by your trusted driver-guide, you'll travel in the safety of your luxury vehicle.

We include entrance fees to two of the following sites on your tour:

The Irish National Stud and Japanese Gardens - if you have a passion for horse-racing, you'll enjoy visiting this historic thoroughbred breeding facility at Tully. The farm has reared many high-profile winners, such as Sun Chariot in 1946 (winning the fillies' Triple Crown). The Japanese gardens are Europe's finest. A place to relax and marvel for a while.

Kilkenny Castle - why not wander around the structure and gardens of this original Irish castle? Sitting proudly in the "high town" of Kilkenny, it was first built in 1195. Since then, there have been many additions and you'll spot numerous architectural styles from different centuries.

The Rock of Cashel – situated on distinctive limestone outcrops within the Golden Vale, St Patrick chose the location for his head of church in Ireland. You'll see a group of medieval fortifications here – most significant in Ireland's history.

Cahir Castle – Surrounded by waters of the river Suir, Cahir Castle was built on a rocky island in 1142. Beautifully preserved through the centuries, it's one of the largest castles in Ireland, and previously home to the mighty Butler family

The Queenstown Story in Cobh – there's so much history in Ireland and this fascinating exhibition tells of some key events, including: the immigration story, the building of the Titanic and Cobh as Queenstown.

The Jameson Experience at the Midleton Distillery – a stop-off for whiskey-lovers, soak up the heritage of the Irish Jameson brand whilst tasting a tippie or two. You'll find yourself among towers of wooden casks (housing world-famous Jameson whiskey) whilst learning about the maturation process first-hand.

Blarney Castle – you might have heard about the legendary Stone of Eloquence? Kiss it, and words will never fail you. Since 1446, the stone has been homed in the tower at Blarney Castle – built 600 years ago and now a world landmark here in Ireland.

To complete your adventurous day, you'll arrive at Kinsale Harbour and check in to Perryville House (or similar). It's a sumptuous boutique guest house and you'll admire the comfort of your deluxe room, coupled with a lovingly restored building that dates to 1820. There's no compromise here!

Overnight at Perryville House in a Double Deluxe Room inclusive of breakfast

Day 4: Cork to Killarney: The Wild Atlantic Way

Your travels continue today and after breakfast, you'll wave farewell to pretty Kinsale.

Your destination is Killarney – and there are many ways to reach it. With your driver-guide's help, you can decide on the day and take account of the weather. Along the coast, or perhaps a more direct route inland, through pretty towns and villages.

We'd always recommend you start from Old Head of Kinsale though. It's scenic overload, where the mighty Atlantic Ocean meets towering cliffs. This is also the start of the Wild Atlantic Way. and you might choose to travel an early section of the route. You'll be awash with breath-taking panoramas and glorious natural wonder. Such serene Irish beauty to awaken your soul. Rural Irish character awaits you if you opt for an inland route. There are so many charming villages to see. You'll no doubt have your camera at the ready, and your driver-guide knows all the best photo-stops. Make the adventure your own and choose and time and place for lunch to suit you.

Built as a tourist resort, you'll reach Killarney during the afternoon (perhaps earlier, dependent on your route). On the shores of Lough Leane, Queen Victoria stayed in Killarney in 1750. And you'll enjoy three nights here now. It's such a pretty town with its mountainous backdrop and proximity to Killarney National Park.

There's a wide choice of hand-picked 5-star hotel options in Killarney. In the heart of town, the Killarney Park Hotel offers incredible comfort and a central location. Another discerning choice is Hotel Dunloe. Overlooking the Gap of Dunloe, it's just five minutes from town, yet situated in a 64-acre estate. A lakeside room at the Aghadoe Heights Hotel is another option, as is the Europe Hotel – also lakeside.

Killarney is yours this evening. With so much to offer, your driver-guide will have many recommendations to ensure you enjoy a fabulous night.

3 nights at Killarney Park Hotel in a Double Premium Room inclusive of breakfast

Day 5: The Ring of Kerry

The incredible scenery of the Ring of Kerry beckons you today. And your attentive driver-guide is with you all the way, ensuring you experience the best of this glorious westerly landscape. This is a circular route that forms part of The Wild Atlantic Way. And there's so many hidden gems to point out to you. First-stop is Killorglin, travelling through the sweet coastal village of Glenbeigh. Here you'll find one of the best sandy Atlantic beaches Ireland can offer. En route to Killorglin, you might opt to stop by Brendan Farris. He's an Irish border collie trainer and his sheepdog demonstrations are quite an experience!

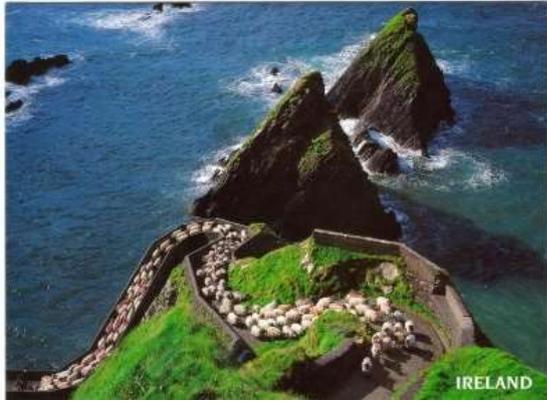

There's so much more to see on the Ring of Kerry. We recommend Dingle Bay, with its clean, sandy beaches, towering cliffs and crashing waves. Your driver-guide knows all the best viewpoints - photographers will be in paradise here. You'll keep going and keep discovering. Cahirciveen is the birthplace of Daniel O'Connell, Ireland's Great Liberator. And Skellig Ring is a fantastic detour if time allows (some say it's more tranquil than the Ring of Kerry). This route can take you to Valentia Island. Well worth the effort. And not just to catch sight of Skellig Island - a key location for the latest Star Wars films.

Still you'll discover awe-inspiring and rugged beauty as you pass through Sneem village and on to Molls Gap. There are staggering views of South-West Ireland from this winding mountain pass that elevates through the peaks. Killarney National Park is now within reach and you'll return to Killarney during the afternoon (perhaps later if you enjoyed Skellig Ring too). There's more to see in Killarney, such as Muckrose House & Gardens or Torc Waterfall. Or you might just want to kick off your shoes back at the hotel.

Tonight, why don't we organise a fantastic Irish music and dance show for you? The Celtic Steps perform in Killarney and your driver-guide can arrange everything. Or maybe a quiet meal is more in order? We can arrange that too

Day 6: The Dingle Peninsula

Ireland's most westerly point, the Dingle Peninsula offers rugged scenery and astonishing views. Your driver-guide will tour you around, ensuring you see all the best vistas. Sleah Head Drive will definitely be a highlight. It's one of the top 100 destinations in the world according to TripAdvisor. And National Geographic once called it "the most beautiful place on earth". We're proud it's in Ireland! If you're looking for a beautiful escape, this circular route is it. Starting and finishing at the attractive harbour town of Dingle, there's no shortage of sheltered sandy beaches, ancient archaeological sites and rugged landscape to admire. You'll love the sense of peace this area exudes. And it's hard not to be drawn by the clear air and captivating natural light.

Fancy a barefoot walk on the sandy beach? You can try and imagine how the Neolithic settlers made this wonderful place their home, back in 4,000BC. Dingle offers plenty of choice for lunch. It might be local seafood fare or other delicious foods. And you'll be glad of your driver-guide here, given that traditional Irish is the first language. It sits firmly within one of the Gaeltacht regions. What an enchanting place to experience traditional Irish life!

Your route back to Killarney includes the Conor Pass to Tralee. Sit back and drink in the views as your driver-guide addresses the winding climbs and magnificent peaks with ease. You'll soon be back at your hotel now.

And so, to your last evening in Killarney. There are many special dining locations and we can arrange one to suit you. Your driver-guide is always at your service.

Day 7: Killarney to Clare with Ferry and Cliffs of Moher

This morning you'll say goodbye to Killarney and travel north to the coastal town of Tarbet. Here, you'll take a short ferry journey across the Shannon estuary and join another section of The Wild Atlantic Way. Your first destination? The Cliffs of Moher. It's easy to see why The Cliffs of Moher are a UNESCO Global Geopark. You'll be struck by their staggering height (up to 668 feet) and endless stretch (5 miles). Such a natural landmark makes you feel humble in the world we live.

Enjoy the far-reaching views across the Atlantic Ocean, take a wind-swept stroll along the cliff tops, spot basking sharks and dolphins in the waters below (on a calm day). Your driver-guide will advise you on the most memorable beauty spots and particular things to look out for. Like Kittiwakes and Razorbills. Coastal sea pinks and pretty wildflowers.

Entrance to the visitor centre is included, enabling you to learn more about this natural Irish wonder.

Your journey continues north through the Burren Region; a Geosite that's home to Burren National Park. With curious limestone landscape formed 300 million years ago, you'll spot intriguing mushroom-like stone formations and structures - all naturally formed by the wild, Irish environment. Rich in archaeological history, you'll see many ancient monuments and Neolithic sites. Your driver-guide will fill in the detail as you go.

The grand finale has to be your one-night stay in a deluxe room at 5-star Dromoland Castle. A sight to behold as you drive up to it in total comfort. What a treat! An original ancestral home, dating back to the 16th century, sense the depth of history as you relax in luxurious style. There's an intimate spa, 450 acres and heavenly cuisine. No compromises here.

Overnight at Dromoland Castle in a Double Deluxe inclusive of breakfast

Day 8: Farewell

Has the time flown by? What an incredible journey. What an experience of Ireland's best and finest. And yet, today, it comes to a close. Treasure those memories and special times. You'll be sad to leave our gregarious and charming land, but you can always return. There's more to discover and we'd love to see you again! As ever, your dear driver-guide is on-hand to drive you to Shannon airport for your return flight. They'll drop you just where you need to be, ensuring your departure is stress-free and easy. After some fond farewells, you'll be safely on your way.
